Jl. Karangsari No.14, Bongsari, Semarang Barat, Semarang, Jawa Tengah, Indonesia.

Detail-oriented and strategically minded Computer Engineering graduate with strong experience in business and system analysis, project coordination, and UI/UX design. Proven ability to lead cross-functional teams, gather and analyze user requirements, and deliver integrated digital solutions aligned with organizational goals. Successfully served as System Analyst and Team Lead in a company website development project for a logistics firm, where I translated business processes into technical specifications and oversaw legal compliance, including HAKI registration. Demonstrated strong client-facing communication through material gathering and solution presentation during a digital transformation project for PPSPDM Migas. Additional experience in government and organizational settings highlights strong adaptability, analytical thinking, and stakeholder engagement skills.
